THE SENTINEL.
JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1870.

HISTORICAL PARALLEL.

After the star of the first Napoleon set forever on the bloody field of Waterloo, Byron's great Napoleonic ode was published. The first and last stanzas are very applicable to the captive of his uncle:

'Tis done—but yesterday a King!
And armed with Kings to strive—
And now thou art a nameless thing!
So abject—yet alive!
Is this the man of thousand thrones,
Who strew'd our earth with hostile bones,
And can he thus survive?
Since he miscalled the Morning Star,
Nor man nor fiend hath fallen so far.

But there, forsooth must be the King
Abroad from the public view!
As if that foolish robe could wring
Her embrace from thy brow!
Where is that faded garment?—Where
The gewgaws thou wert fond to wear,
The star, the string, the crest?
Vain, froward child of empire! say
Are all thy playthings snatch'd away?

BEES.

WILL IT PAY TO KEEP BEES?—The above caption is becoming a very common query. It is a straightforward, practical, Yankee question, supposed to be uppermost in the minds of all persons who propose to engage in the enterprise, and luckily it can be answered in the affirmative without a particle of hesitation. All of our farmers say so—Quinby, King, Langstroth, Gallup, and scores of others, say yes. Does any one doubt it? Let him try it faithfully and his doubts will be quickly dispelled. The annual profits—even under the old haphazard gum or box-hive system—rarely falls short of one hundred per cent. on the amount invested, while a judicious and intelligent system of bee keeping will produce an annual profit much greater. The following figures correctly represent my first year's experience in keeping bees in movable bee frame hives, and the practice of artificial swarming. The season was similar to that of 1869, being cold, with fog and rains during swarming time:

Dr.
5 Stocks of bees	$51.50
13 American hives	48.75
Farm right	5.00
Sundries	10.00
	$115.25

Cr.
1 Natural swarm worth	$10 00
1 Artificial swarm sold for	20 00
6 Artificial swarms worth	60 00
8 Old stocks transferred into American hives	71.50
10 lbs. of wax	4 60
100 lbs. surplus honey	25 00
	190.50
Net profit	$75 25

It will be observed that the amount of surplus was quite small, which was owing to its being a very bad "honey year." Thirteen stocks, properly cared for, will average 400 pounds a year, and as it is all in attractive boxes, it finds a ready market at twenty five cents or more per pound.

Thus it will be seen that had the bees produced an average yield, my first year's profit would have been nearly $150.

After once getting a few stocks of bees to commence with, the main expense is for hives; but this outlay can be materially lessened by purchasing the lumber all fitted ready to nail together, and making them during the leisure of Winter.

Every farmer can and ought to realize enough to pay his annual taxes, besides furnishing his table with a plenty of delicious honey. It is healthy, pleasant, and economical.—Progressive Age.

THE VALUE OF SWAMP MUCK.—Muck differs in value, but when one has no choice, it is safe to act as if the material was of great value. The chief value lies in the organic matter, which contains more or less amonia. In some 33 samples, Prof. Johnson found an average of 1¼ per cent. in the air-dried substance, which is more than double as much ammonia as is contained in very good barn yard manure. Several peats contained 3 and 3½ per cent. J. L. Faulkner, of Tioga county, asks for a simple formula for analyzing swamp muck. It would be impossible for a farmer without accurate chemical knowledge to do this, but an approximate estimate might be arrived at in regard to the ash and the amount of ammonia, thus: Dry some lumps as large as one's fist; burn them, see how much ash they leave, and its character, whether sandy and abundant, which is bad, or fine and little of it, which is good. When the lumps are burning, and as soon as they have done smoking and blazing, take out a coal of the size of a hen's egg or bigger, and hold near it a feather dipped in strong vinegar. The amount of white, cloudy smoke which curls about the feather, indicates the presence of ammonia, and thus when two or more samples are compared, the amount of ammonia may be guessed at. After all, the best test is the practical one; and generally that peat, or muck is best, which decomposes and disappears quickest in the soil; and will probably show the most effect upon the crop.—Agriculturist.

HOW MIKE CURED HIS PIG.—Mike Fagan has a little patch of ground behind his house, where he supports a few ducks and chickens; and the freshest eggs in the neighborhood can always be found on his premises; for he never allows himself to be possessed of more than a single dozen at a time.

In addition to this stock of poultry, Mike purchased a young pig, which after four months petting and nursing, he prided himself upon exhibiting to his friends and acquaintances as the "smallest crathur in the world." But Mike's pig took sick last week and from his coughing and sneezing symptoms, it was certainly evident that he had contracted a bad cold.

Close by the residence of this Hibernian, there dwells the village physician, a kind-hearted man, and very skillful, whose practice is none of the largest. As he came from his house, a few mornings since, Mike stood at his gate, ruminating upon the chances in favor of his favorite young porker; and observing the doctor, hailed him: "The top o' the mornin' to ye, docthur!"

"Ah! Mike, how are you?"

"It's very well I am myself, docthur; but perhaps ye'll be tellin a poor man wot he'll be doin' for the pig, sure?"

"Pig!" exclaimed the doctor with a smile, "what pig? and what's the matter with him?"

"Sure's he's very bad, indade, so he is. A cowld, docthur. Sneezin' and barkin' the head off him a'most, and I'd like to know what I'd be doin' wuth him?"

"Well, really, Mike I can't say. I'm not a pig doctor, at any rate!"

"It's myself as could say that, sure. But a pasin' it were a baby, instead—the sweet crathur—wot wud I be doin' wuth him for the cold he has?"

"Well," continued the doctor, considerately, "if it were a child, Mike, perhaps I should recommend a mustard plaster for the back, and that his feet be placed in hot water."

"It is much obleaged to you, docthur, I am," responded Mike, as the physician passed along; and he entered his domicile.

"Biddy!" he added, addressing his good woman, "we'll cure the pig, so we will."

And in a little while the struggling porker was enveloped in a strong mustard poultice, from ear to tail! Notwithstanding his struggles and his squealing and torture from the action of the unyielding plaster, a tub of almost boiling water was prepared, and into it poor piggy was soused above his knees. The result may be easily conceived!

Next morning, bright and early, Mike stood at his gate once more, awaiting the coming of the doctor, who soon made his appearance, as usual.

"Good morning, Mike; how's the pig?"

"O, be gorrah, docthur! It was mighty oncivil on ye to be trattin a neighbor that way, so it was."

"Why, what has happened, Mike?"

"Happened—is it? I put the powltis on the pig, so I did—an' he squealed bloody murther, to be sure; an' the wull came off his back!"

"What?"

"An' thin I put the baist's feet into the hot water, as ye bid me do, an' be jabers, in five minits the hoofs dropped off of him entirely, too, so they did!"

There is something melancholy, after all, in the description (in this afternoon's Cable news) of the appearance of the deserted rooms in the Tuileries. The women's finery, the ex-Emperor's old cigar boxes and medicine bottles; the Prince's toys and school books—left kicking about, evidences of the insecurity of worldly power, and the instability of human anticipations. The statement that the Empress flew from the scene of her former grandeur and elevation like a thing of disrepute, without one faithful follower to cheer her departing footsteps, is no doubt true. Ingratitude is one of the sharpest and harshest of the visitations to which fallen greatness is ever subjected.—N. Y. Express.

The Fayetteville Presbyterian says: We learn from gentlemen who are judges, and who have seen for themselves, that Dr. David Townsend, who lives about 13 miles from Lumberton, on the road to Affordsville, cultivated with one horse 50 acres of land this year, one half in corn and one half in cotton, and that he will make 20 bales of cotton and 500 bushels of corn.

GRAND FESTIVAL AT KINSTON.

On Thursday last we were present at the largest assemblage of people ever known in the county of Lenoir, at least the old people all said so.

It was our first visit to the county. We never addressed a more attentive and quiet audience, who seemed intent on hearing what was said. We told them all about the Kirk-Holden war, and how Burgin by the misconduct of Judge Pearson was enabled to hang three men.

There were more ladies in attendance than we have seen at similar meetings since 1860. It was to their presence that we may attribute much of the quiet and order that prevailed. We were glad to welcome them at the meeting, but we should oppose their voting.

The colored people were out in great number. A friend said, we were indebted to Governor Holden for their attendance.—They had been made to believe by the Governor that we were the King of the Ku Klux and they had quit picking cotton to see the King. Few of the colored people can read, they should be encouraged to attend our meetings, hitherto they have not attended. The only way to instruct them is from the stump and by conversation.

Then came dinner, which was good and abundant and enjoyed by all without "regard to race or color."

After dinner the crowd were called to the stand by the Newbern Brass Band. Mr. Henry R. Bryan, of Newbern, was introduced and made a handsome speech which was well received. Mr. Swift Galloway, of Green, followed Mr. Bryan dealing heavy blows upon Radical leaders who had pilfered and bankrupted the State.

Mr. Willis Rasberry was next introduced who made a short but telling speech.

Mr. John F. Wooten, who was Master of Ceremonies and introduced the speakers to the audience, was then introduced himself by one of the speakers. Mr. Wooten was received with many cheers. He expressed his gratification and delight at witnessing such a day of rejoicing among a people who had been so long oppressed and depressed. He could now see a brighter day dawning.

After words of congratulation to all, he adjourned the meeting amidst the shouts and rejoicings of the multitude.

KIRK'S MEN.

Quite a number of Kirk's discharged Tennessee scamps who were brought into North Carolina by Holden to mistreat, abuse, bang and menace our people, (whose shoes they were not worthy to bear,) passed through Salisbury one night last week. A gentleman just returned from the West informs us, that their conduct was much more subdued and quiet on passing through Salisbury on returning, than when they came down two months ago.

We regret to learn, however, that while there, one of them struck a small boy on the head with a pistol, seriously affecting the skull, causing fits, &c., and further that after they had left the town on flat cars and the train had proceeded about a mile and a half from Salisbury, that they were fired into by unknown parties on the side of the Road, wounding slightly two or three of them. Our informant says, he saw one of them and the only one who complained of his wounds, at Marion, McDowell county, whose leg had been sprinkled with bird shot, which was then swollen and painful.

The public may expect quite a hue and cry from the Radicals and friends of Kirk and Holden, about this affair and an enormous outrage made of it. We had hoped, that as our people had borne the conduct of Holden, Kirk, Burgin and their miserable scape-graces, who had pillaged, abused and mistreated them so long, that they would allow them to return to their homes undisturbed. Our informant however assures us, that very little harm was done.

When we look, however, at the lawless character and enormity of the offenses against the good people of North Carolina, it is wonderful that our people have exhibited towards them such long-suffering and forbearance. Many of the soldiers, however, were misled and drawn into Holden's army by false representations, and it is matter of regret that any of them should have been harmed on their way home.—Those who have misled them and the conspirators in this assault upon the rights of the people of North Carolina, deserve the ignominy and the lawful punishment due to their conduct. But we condemn all secret assaults upon them, and any attempt to look private revenge.

Mr. Turner, Editor of the Raleigh SENTINEL, addressed the people of Goldsboro' on Thursday last, in the Court House.

DUMPEY DOUGLAS "ARK" GONE!

"Farewell to the big troops and the plumed wars. Othello's occupation's gone."

Misfortune seems to come not single handed upon the great. Napleon has fallen. Burgin has fallen and that so low that the hand of Judge Bond could not resurrect him. Honeycutt has fallen and fled after committing larceny and robbery. General Estes, Col. Kirk, Col. Burgin, Major Yates and Dumpey's late companions in arms, without regard to race or color, will all regret that the service has lost a "general" so able and efficient.

It will be seen from Dumpey's resignation, that he has only half resigned. He resigns as Colonel and Aid of the Governor; he has not resigned as General of State troops. The Governor accepts the resignation of Dumpey and says "you have performed your duties faithfully and efficiently in a crisis requiring nerve and determination of character."

It is thought by some that Col. Clarke must have written the Governor's letter accepting General Dumpey's resignation.—One thing is certain the correspondence between Dumpey and Dad as a military and literary curiosity has never been surpassed, except by Col. Clarke, when he "buckled on his sword for the third time." We were in the late cruel war with General Dumpey and had ample opportunity of witnessing his display of "nerve" and prowess. Without meaning to charge him with cowardice, we do say when there was a fight on hand he was always absent. When Bill Fox struck William Jones across the nose with the tin plate, Douglas was not there.—When Wheeden and Gray were ironed, Douglass was not there. When Rogers, Murray and Patton were hung, Dumpey Douglass was not there. When Capt. Franklin threw a rock at the prisoner, A. G. Moore, Dumpey was not there.

It occurs to us that Chief Justice Pearson should have the credit of throwing the rock. If he had given A. G. Moore the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus five weeks before, when he applied for it, as was his bounden duty, Mr. Moore would have been at large and not a prisoner and target for Captain Franklin's rocks, or the Governor's rancor and revenge. "Fiat Justicia ruat cælum" we say, give Judge Pearson and not Dumpey or Capt. Franklin credit for throwing rocks at the unarmed prisoner, A. G. Moore. We say give the Judge credit for hanging three men and ironing two, for how could Burgen have hung or ironed the prisoners, if the Judge had taken them from him by the all powerful writ of habeas corpus, as he ought to have done. We say turn Burgin out of jail and Pearson out of office. Fiat Justicia ruat cælum.

COL. BURGIN.

The counsel for the Marshal in the matter of the petition for writ of habeas corpus against him in behalf of Burgin, relied on the following sections of "an act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States of the union and for other purposes," ratified May 31st 1870, as sustaining Judge Brooks' action in requiring Burgin to give security in the sum of $5,000 not to imprison without process of law any citizen of North Carolina:

"Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That if two or more persons shall band or conspire together or go in disguise upon the public highway, or upon the premises of another, with intent to violate any provision of this act, or to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any citizen with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise and enjoyment of any right or privilege granted or secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having exercised the same, such persons shall be held guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court—the fine not to exceed five thousand dollars, and the imprisonment not to exceed ten years—and shall moreover, be thereafter ineligible to, and disabled from holding, any office or place of honor, profit, or trust created by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the district courts of the United States, within their respective districts, shall have exclusively of the courts of the several States, cognizance of all crimes and offences committed against the provisions of this act, and also, concurrently with the circuit courts of the United States, of all causes, civil and criminal, arising under this act, except as herein otherwise provided, and the jurisdiction hereby conferred shall be exercised in conformity with the laws and practice governing United States courts; and all crimes and offences committed against the provisions of this act may be prosecuted by the indictment of a grand jury, or, in cases of crimes and offences not infamous, the prosecution may be either by indictment or information filed by the district attorney in a court having jurisdiction."

The counsel contended that not only Burgen, but Kirk and every other officer of the "State Troops" as well as all the soldiers of that command are guilty of felony under that act. It cannot be denied that Kirk, Burgen, &c., &c., did "band themselves together with intent to prevent and hinder, the free exercise and enjoyment" by citizens of a right guaranteed and secured by the Constitution of the United States, the right of personal liberty—not to mention others.

OUR PISTOLS.

We do not like to be importunate, but we must remind the Governor again, though Judge Kerr has received his cane, we have not received our pistols. If his Excellency has bestowed them as presents upon his military friends, Douglas, Kirk Burgin, or upon his counsel, Messrs. Boyden, Bailey and Badger, we will say nothing more about the pistols. But if the Governor has our property, of which we were robbed, we demand of him to make restitution.

We are informed that the Governor had Judge Kerr's cane, and it was through the Governor the cane was returned. We look for our pistols through the same channel. Give us our pistols and give us peace.

Jesse Ivey, Esq., residing near Smith's Bridge, Robeson county, fell dead in his field one day last week.

JUST RETURNED.

Jerry Ashley, of Flat River, Orange county, went out in 1861, as a drummer boy in Capt. John W. Graham's Company. Before the war closed he was large enough to handle a gun. At the battle of Gettysburg his leg was broken, and a ball entered his skull, which has not yet been extracted.—He was also shot through the lungs, and shows a running wound on his side. He was taken to the Jersey City Hospital, where he remained until recently. The wound in the head affected his mind.—For years he was not able to tell who or what he was.

He leaves for his home in Orange county this evening. We commend him to the charity of all good people.

In 1864 we saw in one of the Richmond Hospitals a young son of our neighbor, Henry Whitted, of Orange. He was badly wounded in the head. The ball entered the eye, destroying it entirely, and lodging in the head. Last year the ball made its appearance and fell into his mouth.

A WORD TO FARMERS.

The present is the proper time for farmers in this State generally, to begin their preparations for the next year. Wheat is a most important article of produce, especially in the red hilly lands of the up country. Our North Carolina land produces it is said, the best wheat in the country, and it is a most important crop to save labor, and to rest and improve lands. Wheat and clover and peas are greatly desirable to persons owning large, open and worn fields which need recuperation and improvement, and by these agents lands can be improved at less expense than by any other means.

It is time to prepare lands for seeding wheat. Too little care has been given heretofore to liming and preparing the land for seed—hence the poor return generally received from it. Let your seed be good, lime and fertilize to a liberal extent at least, and put your seed in after thorough ploughing and preparation, and the crop will pay well.

By sowing wheat you lessen the amount of labor needed on your farm, and also reduce the necessity of cultivating large crops of corn, cotton or tobacco. Small farms well tilled and improved are far more profitable than large cotton fields. We believe it is of the highest importance for our farmers to reduce their farms—rent or sell your lands, rather than cultivate large cotton fields neglecting to raise the necessaries of life.

For several years some of our planters in this section have been pledging their crops to merchants who would furnish them with provisions and fertilizers. They have thus been cultivating their lands at a cost of 25 per cent. higher than they could have done it if they had possessed the cash. Can farmers live at this rate? Impossible.

"A BORDER MAN."—The article of our friend published several days ago, was much marred by the incorrect rendering of one line of the quotation from a favorite poet. He wants its corrected by republishing the whole quotation thus:

"Upon that day tyrannic power defied,
And met the bursting of oppression's tide,
And like a bulwark rolled it back and said
Here shall thy billows, Hated Power be stay'd."

The above was applied to the action of the Conservative people of the State on the 4th of August. Our friend's chirography was not very legible.

The names of the parties injured by the premature discharge of the cannon used in firing a salute at the recent Conservative Celebration at Kinston, were Joseph Miller and John Coker. Mr. Miller was horribly mutilated, both hands being blown off and his face and breast badly injured. Mr. Coker had one of his thumbs blown off.—Mr. Miller's arms have been amputated, but it is feared that he cannot survive.

The newly elected county officers of Wayne, qualified and assumed their authority on Monday last. The Messenger says that about 75 illegal colored votes had been collected, together with the most distinct evidence, and the election of one or two Commissioners at least would have been contested had there been any way to do so.

The planters in Orange have begun cutting their tobacco and a good crop will reward their industry.

The colored Literary and Debating Society of Newbern, is getting along swimmingly. It has been in operation nearly a year.

The Tarboro Southerner urges the claims of Harry Dancy, a colored Conservative of Edgecombe, as Doorkeeper to one of the Houses of the next Legislature.

A Methodist meeting is progressing at Cedar Grove, Orange county, under the direction of Rev. Mr. Crawford, of Hillsboro'.

The Conservatives of Trent township, Lenoir county, held a public meeting some days ago and denounced all attempts to intimidate, in any way, colored voters.

POLITICAL CHANGES IN FRANCE.

The political changes of France in eighty years are summarized as follows:

In 1792 the great French Revolution was inaugurated. Louis XVI. was deposed, and all the monarchies of Europe declared war against the young republic. France was without finances, without troops.

In 1793 the republic had been triumphant everywhere against the monarchial governments and had established internal order.

In 1799 Bonaparte was chosen First Consul.

1804—Bonaparte Emperor.

1815—Waterloo and St. Helena and the restoration of the Bourbons in the person of Louis XVIII.

1830—The revolution and expulsion of Charles X. for general disregard of constitutional government, and in particular for Polignac decrees against the press. Louis Phillippe ascends the throne.

1848—Louis Phillippe abdicates; popular dissatisfaction at peace policy abroad; tampering with elections at home and limiting the powers of the press; and Louis Napoleon elected President.

1851—Louis Napoleon elected President for ten years by 7,839,216 votes.

1852—The Second Empire by a vote of 7,824,129 citizens.

For the Sentinel.

LEXINGTON, N. C., Sept. 5, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR—The strange and unexampled proceedings that have transpired in our midst in the last few days, must suffice as an apology for my trespassing on your time and claiming notice in your valuable paper. We had hoped that Davidson county had been redeemed; as it has been cursed enough in the last two years in the persons of Adams and Henderson, Sowers, Lodin, Snider and other imbeciles, who have ruled her. But it seems that the devil is turned loose among them, and that the scoundrels still persist in ruling her, notwithstanding their recent defeat. We thought when the election was over and the Radicals defeated, that all was saved and that we might look forward with some well grounded hope for future prosperity and happiness for our good old county, but, alas! Monday's proceedings soon banished the idea. Monday, as your readers are aware, was the day set apart by the Constitution for all newly elected officers to qualify, and the old incumbents to turn out and turn over all books, papers and what money they have not stolen. This they peremptorily refused to do, and by this act have shown themselves to be meaner, if possible, than we ever thought they were.

We have now in Davidson county two acting Sheriffs and two sets of County Commissioners, after session; save two of the old Commissioners who refused to take any part in this infamous proceeding and are ready and willing to accede to the wishes of the people and comply with the law.—But not so with the old Sheriff, J. A. Sowers, and the three old Commissioners, William Lodin, John Snider and Calvin Taylor, colored, all of whom were beaten some four hundred otes in the recent election by their opponents. But in defiance of law and the wishes of the people they still hold their offices and refuse to turn over anything, and the old Sheriff renewed his bond before to three old Commissioners; or 'tis said so did, but I learn that he would not let any one see it. The general impression is that it is worthless. He says he will be Sheriff for two years longer, notwithstanding they all canvassed the county in the recent contest, and they all pledged their word and honor that if they were defeated they would make no attempt to hold over. To use their own language, if the people did not want them as officers they did not want to serve them.—What the sum of all this is to be I cannot tell; I fear that the three old Commissioners have defiled the offices of the Register and the two old Commissioners, (who refused to act with them) as vacant, and have taken that others be appointed in their stead. The old Register was re-elected, but because he gave his bond and acted with the new Commissioners on Monday, they have closed his office and he cannot get in himself, neither can any one else, no matter how important the business or what sort of papers they want to see; all is closed except, I suppose, to the favorite few who ensrse their course.

Auditor Adams, who is, I have no doubt, one of the prime movers in this holding over business, went to all the stores in the village, purchased locks with a view that, in case they could not get possession of the key of such offices in the Court House as they wanted, they would remove the locks and place others on the doors; there were some rich scenes at the Court House, on Monday. From what I can learn the old commissioners treated the new ones with perfect contempt when they demanded the books, papers, &c. On their refusal, the new commissioners tried counsel, and sent in our much respected and promising young lawyer, F. C. Robins, to remonstrate with them and explain the law as he understood it; but he was insultingly told that they would not hear him, and they threatened to put him in jail. He persisted and did read the law, producing the certificates of the newly elected members, properly certified to by the Superior Court Clerk. But all to no purpose.

On Tuesday morning both Boards of Commissioners met again, but had to adjourn without adjusting the matter. The whole people are perfectly indignant, and take every occasion to denounce these thieving imbeciles; and they are certainly the most cooking set of men in the county, especially the Sheriff, who cannot hold up his head. Even the little boys and negroes are hollering, "holding over are you?" when even they see them passing on the streets.

It is certainly a high handed measure and I suppose will be a question for the Court to decide; but unfortunately for us, as recent events have proven, we have little to hope from a partizan and corrupt judiciary.

Please ask Bailey, the new Code-man, what he thinks of holding over. The people think this his only chance for office, as the Code Commissioners must be abolished. The impression up here is that Bailey sold out very cheap but I have heard it rumored that he made more than Phillips did. The people want to know what is your opinion of this holding over as it is all new to us; let us hear from you through your paper. Wonder if Holden won't want to hold over if he is impeached.

LEXINGTON.

Governor Holden's organ, the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard, in its issue of the 2d inst., orates thus:

"We observe a card in the New York Tribune, signed by Joseph C. Abbott, Senator, which by implication, lays the garbling of a letter written by Judge Tourgee at the door of Governor Holden. We have given the lie to this statement before, and we repeat it. The letter or certified copy given Governor Holden by Senator Abbott was handed to Mr. Beecher, the Tribune correspondent, for information, and not for publication."

But the other day we had Governor Holden stigmatizing Mr. Greeley as the slave of Jefferson Davis, well knowing this, if anything, would break the heart of that philosopher; and now his Excellency gives the lie to Mr. Abbott, the North Carolina Senator from New Hampshire, and in the same breath accuses one of the Tribune's correspondents, who certainly has an ill-smelling name, of violating faith by publication of a letter shown him merely for his personal information. Despite his malodorous name, we fancy the correspondent only did what it was expected and hoped he would do, and are, therefore, free to acquit him in this matter; but what a rogues' row it is between Holden, Tourgee, Abbott, and the Tribune. The cause of the difficulty, the reader must know, is a fine dose of outrages intended to operate handsomely upon the election, but so horribly overwrought that the popular stomach of even the remotest Radical district could not abide the same. Each of the doctors concocting the bolus now insists that it was the other overdid the thing.—N. Y. World Sept. 6th.

GERMAN TROOPS IN THE FIELD.—The correspondence of Berlin enumerates the German troops now in the field as follows: Confederation of the North—Infantry 350,000; cavalry, 53,000; artillery, 1,200 guns, infantry, recruits, 187,000; cavalry, 18,000; artillery, 234; landwehr infantry, 205,000; cavalry, 10,000—total for the Confederation of the North, 994,000 men; 1,680 pieces of artillery and 193,000 horses. Adding to these the troops of Bavaria, Wurtemburg and Baden, there is a force of 1,124,000.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH LINT IN FORTY MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gins' Lint room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x50in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1870.

☞ JNO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

We are authorized to announce Mr. William E. Pell, Jr., of this city as a candidate for Reading or Assistant Clerk of the State Senate. Mr. P. has been the Reporter of the SENTINEL in the Senate for several years.

Sept. 2 tf.

We are authorized to announce ROBERT H. HENLEY, formerly of Randolph County but now of this city, as a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper to the Senate. He is an honest, sober colored man, has been a consistent Conservative from the first, and the Pressman of the SENTINEL for several years.

RUMORED.—We hear it rumored that Miss Laura Keene will again visit our city during Fair week.

SKULKING.—It is reported upon what authority we know not, that Kirk was in this city on Friday, concealed in the Governor's house, to avoid being arrested under the warrant issued by Judge Dick.

QUALIFIED.—Judge Shipp took the oath of office as Attorney General of the State on Friday at Franklinton and has entered upon the duties of his office. The oath was administered by Judge Watts.

COMPLETED.—The handsome building, erected for Rescue Steam Fire Company, No. 1, is now completed and ready for the reception of the engine.

The building presents a very handsome appearance and is admirably suited for the purpose for which it is designed.

We return our thanks to Messrs. Martin & Finch, Agents in this city, for the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, for the handsome topographical map of the country now the scene of the existing European war.

We are requested to say that Messrs. M. & F. will supply these maps to all who will call at their office at the Yarborough House.

MECHANICS BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—This Association has been in existence only 17 months in this city. The number of shares redeemed is 235. The present par value of the shares is $28,50. On Friday night last at the regular meeting twenty-six shares were redeemed at an average of $111 per share. The amount of loans effected by the Association is now $53,000.

MONEY STOLEN.—On the 18th of August about $400 was stolen from H. L. Cook of this county. A warrant was issued for the arrest of suspected parties and placed in the hands of John Q. Bryan, who arrested David Fan, a white man who was working for Cook. Fan disgorged $70 to Bryan and promised after he was put in the guard house to return the balance if an officer was sent with him, which was done. We have not heard the result.

His Excellency, our "beloved" Governor, still keeps a company of negro men, armed, clothed, fed and paid at the expense of the State for his private use. They may be seen day and night guarding His Excellency's residence. It is reported that "our son Lewis" (not Fritz) has discovered a clause in the Constitution whereby "our beloved" is entitled to Household Guards, we suppose "thems they." It is said that Louis' argument in regard to this matter beats the "climatic theory" all to smash.

They have a society for the protection of property in Salem. Good idea. There ought to be one here if it would protect hogs, sheep, chickens, &c., from Holden's thievish crew now under arms in and about this unfortunate city.

Flat Branches, the recently established post office in Forsythe county, has again gone by default; the postmaster appointed declining to serve.

The post offices at Weavil's Mill in Forsythe county and Jackson Hill in Davidson county, have been discontinued.

The Fair Grounds at Wilmington are being rapidly placed in first class order, and from present appearances, the Fair which will be held there this Fall, will reflect much credit upon the enterprise and energy of the Wilmingtonians.

Alex. McCabe, Sheriff elect of Edgecombe, upon the advice of counsel, declined to qualify, being under the impression that the old Sheriff could hold over.—Whereupon Sheriff Bryan, the present incumbent appeared and gave the required bond.

There is a camp meeting going on at Stanly Creek, near Brevard station.

Sheep killing dogs are on the rampage in portions of Forsythe county.

The tobacco and corn crops in Caswell county are reported as being very fine.

Wilmington is anxious for some one to engage the theatre during the next month

The first oysters of the season made their appearance in the Wilmington market on Tuesday.

Mr. Jacob Blickensderfer has been appointed by the Department at Washington, Assistant Assessor of Revenue in Forsythe county.

In passing through Goldsboro' en route for Newbern, Holden's discharged thieves kept up their reputation. One member of Hancock's Company stole a coat from one of the stores.

Some four, or five hundred of Holden's disbanded banditti passed through Salisbury last week on their way to some unfortunate locality.

The Standard says the Governor "will not surrender to any authority, save that of God and the Continental Congress." Since there is no such thing nowadays as the Continental Congress, we suppose we shall have to leave His Excellency, for the present, wholly in the hands of Providence. Sad hands for him to get into, considering what he has been doing of late days.—People's Press.

At one of the stations on a certain railway recently, an anxious inquirer came up to the door of the baggage car and said: "Is there anything for me?" After some search among boxes and trunks, the baggage man rolled out a keg of whiskey.—"Anything more?" asked the wet grocer. "Yes," said the baggage-man, "there's a gravestone that goes with that liquor."

A party of Indians looking at Brigham Young's "Territorial Museum" the other day, were asked whether they knew what the monkeys were. "Yes," said the chief with some indication of surprise at the simplicity of the question; "me see um; me know um; Chinaman's pappooses."

The Emperor has already purchased, by his agents (so says the cable news,) an estate in Kent, England. It is likely, being no longer of any account as a political power, and but a simple citizen, he will be allowed to go there and enjoy the proceeds of about 30,000,000 which he has safely invested in British and other securities. The Empress, the Prince Imperial, and the ex-Emperor may succeed in living very comfortably upon such an income.—N. Y. Ex.

STRASBOURG AND METZ.—For many long and sorrowful days the inhabitants of Strasbourg have been the victims of siege, bombardment, and a rain of fire. Since the surrender of Napoleon the bombardment has ceased, which means, perhaps, the confirmation of a report that Strasbourg is to be transferred to Germany along with Metz. "We must have Metz and we must have Strasbourg," is the declared purpose of Bismarck; "we may do without Alsace and Lorraine!" Alsace and Lorraine, compared with these two great fortresses, are of but little worth to Germany, as the people detest the Prussians, and would prove most unruly subjects.—N. Y. Express.

WHAT SHERIDAN SAID—All the wisdom in the world will probably not die with General Sheridan. A war correspondent represents him congratulating Count Bismarck upon the French surrender at Sedan, and as comparing the "surrender of Napoleon to that of Gen. Lee, at Appomattox Court House." That is simply nonsense. Lee and his men fought, literally, in and to the "last ditch," and only gave up when gunpowder and rations gave out. Even then Grant succeeded in bagging less than forty thousand of them. Napoleon on the contrary, had a great army—four times as great, numerically, as Lee's—not fatigued with campaigns running through long weary years, and supplied with all the modern improvements in arms; yet their surrender was quick, and unconditional. There was no "last ditch" about it. Give these gallant Frenchmen their due—but what is the use of drawing historic parallels, where no parallel exists.—N. Y. Ex-press.

The labor Congress which recently assembled in Cincinnati, adapted a platform which looks to a very radical change in government affairs. Among other things inserted in their platform they advise the withdrawal of the greenbacks, oppose the payment of the five twenty bonds in gold, urge the taxation of bonds, denounce the tariff as unjust and oppressive, insist that the public lands should belong to the people, that co-operative industry should take the place of capital, that wealth should be taxed upon a graduated basis, and that the President should be elected by the direct vote of the people.

ALABAMA.—It having been stated the Radical party in Alabama are largely in the majority, the Montgomery Mail says:

There never was a greater mistake. In the Presidential contest between Seymour and Grant in 1868, Grant's majority was only 4,280. The strength of the Radical party is with the negroes. In Dallas Co. alone, out of 39,926, including whites and blacks of all ages, there are only 9,425 whites, leaving the negro population 29,-601 in the majority. This county gave Grant a majority of 5,356, and we venture not 50 white men voted with the negroes.—The other negro counties gave like majorities. The whole vote cast in the State in the Presidential election amounted to 148,-452. The census of 1866 shows that there were 127,171 white males in the State over 20 years of age, and its fair to presume that there is that number of qualified voters. About one third of the whites voted in the election of 1868. Cherokee county in the Presidential election of 1860 voted 2,456 without a single negro voting, while in 1868, when all the negroes voted, she cast only 1,086 votes, not half of the white vote. The same can be said of the other white counties. In the negro counties the vote has increased. Dallas in 1860 voted 1,792, while in 1868 she cast 8,916 votes. Now with these facts staring the white people of Alabama in the face, if they stand still and say there is no use in trying to defeat the carpet baggers and scalawags, we say they should have a negro filling every office in the State from Governor down to Bailiff. It is a notorious fact that in the election in 1868, there were thousands not disfranchised as well as those who were that did not vote.

A Tainted Atmosphere.

Malarious fevers are most prevalent in the fall. Heavy and unwholesome exhalations then arise from the earth, and the great disparity between the temperature of day and night predisposes the system, enfeebled by the summer heats, to epidemic diseases. The secretive organs, the liver especially, are apt, at this period of the year to become inert and sluggish, and all the bodily powers require renovation. The best indeed the only protection against the morbid influences of the season is a wholesome medicated stimulant. Pre-eminent among the restoratives of this class, and indeed foremost among the remedial and preventive medicines of modern times, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its reputation is co-extensive with the Western Hemisphere; it has been a standard article for twenty years; its sales (as may be ascertained by the revenue returns) are far larger than those of any other proprietary preparation on this continent; and the testimony in its favor embraces letters of approval from the most distinguished members of all the learned professions and from well known residents of almost every city in the Union. These are its credentials. To state what it is doing to prevent and assuage the sufferings of the human family would require more space than can be given to the subject here. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the weak and emaciated, the desponding, the broken down, find in its renovating and regulating properties a sure and immediate means of relief. It is a pure vegetable specific, at once safe and potent, and for which the whole materia medica affords no substitute

HOW FRANCE HAS BEEN SWINDLED.

It is related of the Czar Nicholas that, shortly after the Crimean war broke out, he was strolling through the ordinance yard at Sebastopol, surveying with pride the pyramids of cannon balls piled up there, when he idly chanced to strike one of them with his walking stick. It gave back a strange, dull sound. An examination revealed that it was made of wood, and the same exaggerated wooden nutmeg imposture had been practiced by the contractor in supplying all the balls there stored away. Following up this clue the Czar ascertained that jobbing and fraud pervaded all departments of the army service, and that, except on paper, his empire was in no condition to contend with the allied powers. Napoleon's army and military equipments and provisions are not as deficient and delusive as those of Nicholas; but they fell far short of what he and the world expected them to be. We question, in the first place, whether the active army was anything like 400,000 strong. We have never been able to figure up more than 250,000 or 275,000 regular French troops in the advance on Prussia; and we believe that the actual enumeration of the men at his command was the principal reason that induced Napoleon to stand on the defensive instead of attempting an invasion of Prussia. Somebody—or some military ring—has been deceiving the Emperor and getting rich out of the rations and supplies of a paper army. Then, too, the reserve of 400,000 men, which were supposed to be capable of taking the field at short notice, why have they not been available to reinforce the regular army more promptly? Because, we venture to say, the War Department was unable to furnish them with rifles or muskets of any description, to say nothing of Chassepots, equipments and uniforms. More than a year ago we read the statement that France had over a million Chassepots in her arsenals; and the government factories were said to be still turning them out. But, immediately after McMahon's defeat, complaints began to be rife that France was short, not only of Chassepots, but of arms of every kind. The French commissariat is worse, if possible, than any other branch of the service, if we may believe a tithe of the statements made by correspondents. McMahon's army was represented to be almost starving for some days, and that, too, in a region in easy communication with the capital. All these deficiencies and weaknesses in the French army, disclosed by the light of events, astonish those who believe that, since 1866, France has been making unremitting efforts for a war with Prussia. Either she has had no serious intent of fighting Prussia in all that time, or the Emperor has been grossly duped by his favorites, who have deluded him into the belief that France was prepared "to confront every eventuality" (to quote from his speech to the bodies of state, January 18, 1869), and have profited by his credulity to amass fortunes.

A talented young African of the bootblack persuasion observed a neighbor peering wisely over a newspaper; whereupon he addressed him thus: "Julius, what you looking at dat paper for? You can't read."—"Go way fellah," cried the other, indignantly; "guess I can read—I's big enuff for dat." "Big nuff," retorted the other, scornfully, "dat ain't nuffin. A cow's big nuff to kotch a mice, but she can't."

One of Holden's "Majors" has been dismissed the service "for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman." Of what particular act he was guilty we do not know, though it is likely that he plundered but one hen roost when he might have plundered two.—Louisville Courier Journal.

A correspondent of the Standard writing from Paris says: "The Prussians, with their six hundred thousand men, cannot successfully besiege Paris. It is said that the casualties of the war number 400,000 and that more than half of these are dead, or maimed for life."

It is believed that even if communications are cut the authorities have arranged to correspond between Tours and Paris. The Diplomatic corps will depart for Tours to-day.

A number of fine houses around Paris have been burned by order of the authorities.

The Secretary of the Bank of France says that the Crown jewels are not there. The government took care to have them placed safely within the city. A letter from Strasburg says that the condition of the city is better than is supposed. There is plenty of ammunition and food for two months. Some formidable gunboats are arriving here from Toulon. They are iron-clad, drawing little water and are bravely armed.—They will be used on the Seine.

A large number of cavalry have reached Versailles from Sedan and will resume active service after a short rest. They will watch the environs of Paris. The mob has threatened the Figaro newspaper.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—Baunevilie has resigned the Ambassadorship to Rome. The Journal Officiel publishes the letters of Italy and Switzerland, recognizing the Republic, and Favre's response thereto.

The citizens of Paris who left will be taxed in proportion to the rents paid them for lodgings for the Garde Mobile. All the Theatres are closed.

The protestations by Radical journals against violence had the best effect. The people were made aware that revolution out mean anarchy. The journals approve the project for the convocation of the Assembly Constituents, as depriving the Prussians of any chance to make a claim for indemnity; there being no general government. An immense crowd of strangers are at Havre, and trains from hence are incapable to carry the crowds from the city. The forests of Clamant and Meadow are being destroyed. The publication of the Marseilles is suspended; all the editors abandoned the concern.

Suburban residents are ordered to evacuate the scenes reached by the guns of the fortifications. Excesses by the Reds are reported at Toulons and Lyons. All the tunnels on Railroads on the Seine and Marne have been exploded.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION

BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST

ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company, in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AN. THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

NEW YORK.

F. PESCUD, Raleigh, GENERAL AGENT AND MANAGER.

DR. C. E. JOHNSON, MEDICAL EXAMINER.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD, Gen'l Manager.
